As me and my mate walked through the forest it started raining so we hid in a cave near the thunder path. We got used to it and agreed to make it our home "when the rain stops I'll hunt and find moss for our bedding" I volunteered, she looked at me and nodded to tired to move since she's close to kitting. We slept for the night,hopefully stonefur is ok.

(And there is the first chapter of the story special eddition have a good day/night 👍🐱)

great! first tinypelt,then snowpaw, and now smoke are all gone! al l i can do is stay in my den to die and probably dig my grave,crawl in it and die! thundertail is patrolling with his sister silvertrail and smoke is gone because he wanted to help his brother,i wonder how he is? "badger" thundertail yowled and collapsed. i shot out and was greeted to two badgers hitting the cats. i bolted on top of one and scratched it the surprised badger tried to hit me off but i hung on while the cats were scratching the badger, it ran off with the other one on its heals. " good now we can be in peace" said grayclaw while cleaning is bites. jayfeather started helping thundertail while bairlight and leafpool help the others,but i wasnt hurt because i was on top of the badger. i pad to the den and sleep

snowpaw comes* "hello dad!" i looked up and saw my kit "snowpaw oh i missed you!" she smiled and laughed " its snowlake" i was happy she became a warrior here " you need a new mate and forgive my brother he was playing dont be mad" she said before disapearing " no wait!" but she left

end of dream

and i woke up to blazeleaf giveing me prey " umm want to share f-food?" she was nervous so i said yes, we shared food and we talked " umm stonefur i know you just lost your mate an kit b-but will you be my mate?" i was shocked at what she said say yes my daughter ket repeating so i agreed and she was so happy as she left. i padded to thunder he looked at me and got up " look dad I'm so-" i cut him off "no I'm sorry for ignoring you" he was happy and the whole clan watched us, the whole clan seemed to be happier as i finished. i went out to hunt by myself and caught tree mice before leaf bare can come and its only fa few moons away.

skip to leaf bare brought to you by tigerstars famous death- no fun berries! makes you able to see starclan everyday and you as i walk into camp in tackled by my kits riverkit,dawnkit and frostkit, dadd guess what!" they said in a union. " were gonna be apprenticed today!" they jumped off as bramble star come out sand calls the clan to a meeting " all cats old enough to catch their own prey come for a clan meeting!" and with that many cats came out " i bramblestar is here to appoint three new apprentice dawnkit,river kit and frost kit from now until you get you warrior names you will be Dawnpaw,riverpaw and frostpaw" brambles tar looked into the cats scanning for three of them to be made mentors "firestep you have been trained well and is a good warrior you will mentor dawnpaw, littlepond you will mentor riverpaw and I will mentor frostpaw, meeting over" and with that everyone cheered their names "dawnpaw,riverpaw, frostpaw" they held third head high and walked off. I now have something to love again and I'll make sure I won't lose them even if I have have to kill anything to keep them here!

My small family

Tiger!wolf!claw! Come on time to hunt. And with that my kits ran to me " daddy I caught a vole ! Tiger kit squeaked "and I attacked a bird that was trying to get her vole!" Claw raked the air as he jumped, I really love my kits! I wonder how stonefur is? "We have to go home " I jumped as I heard my mate purr "fawn I didn't see you!" She purred and led the kits to bed so I can make sure no one is there. "A tiger and wolf need a claw to keep them alive when death comes to the wolf and tigger but after the battle they will leave but one will live with thunder and two will live with blood" I know that voice! "Firestar! Come out and fight me!" But no one came,I padded back and went to sleep but woke up in a forest a blueish cat came and sat "I'm bluestar I was a thunderclap leader but as you see I'm dead" I looked at her with sadness "it's ok this is starclan" she flicked her tail around stonefur showed me about this! Your kits have a destiny to save your clan,stonefurs clan and each other" I purred "goodbye smoke" wait she knew my name! "Wait you- but she was gone and I woke up.

now I'm just watching "kits time to go!" my brothers stop and rush to my mom with me behind "we have to cross a thunder path so becareful" my dad kept reminding us until we got there, as we were walking a rumbling sound came and it was a " monster! run!" my brothers and parents ran but i was stuck to the stone ground. "run" i heard a voice but who's was it? soon i was picked up by my dad we didn't have time to run its here and gonna kills us! but then i was thrown and i heard a screech and thud with a final crack, i looked up to see a cat -no my dad! laying on the road " dad! I'm sorry!" i ran to him to see him barley breathing and looked at me and smiled "i...I'm so..g-glad you o..-.k....." and with that his eyes glazed and i felt a claw go through my heart. my mom rushed over with my brother, i cried knowing i killed him and i should have died but he did instead so ill make sure i stay alive for him and his death will not be wasted.

" stonefur are you and frostpaw ok?!" its blazeleaf " a fox came, frostpaw medicine cat den now" she limped away and i went to my den to rest and as i did i woke up in a forest starclan! "hello!" nothing "I'm coming stonnefur" smoke? and with that he came and crashed into me." smoke?" how did he get here? as my mind raced i heard smoke talk "i died" he whispered " how! you were ok when you left what about your kits!" he smiled " they're ok about 5 moons " i was happy he had i good life " i was killed by a monster saving one of my kit" i stopped smiling so he is dead! " well is your kit alive?" best question mousebrain! "yea shes ok, i just wanted to see you" and he left " no wait!" " i have to do border patrol" i looked up and saw blazeleaf " oh yea sorry " i walked out the warrior den and went hunting. "how could you die smoke!" i said as i came back with a trush and a starling "hey stonefur! our kits are being named!" blazeleaf said from the crowed, i quickly put my prey int the pile and sat "i bramblestar will have theses apprentices named as warriors, frostpaw from now on youll be named frostwind, you will be known for your courage and skills. dawnpaw from now on youll be known as dawnstep, you will be know for your speed and knowledge. and last but not least riverpaw you will be riverheart, you be known for your courage and speed." (i dont care if i got that wrong) "riverheart,dawnstep,frostwind" i chanted first then everyone chanted "riverheart,dawnstep,frostwind" they held their heads high as we chanted "smoke i wonder who loves their kits more" i whispered as i laughed a little oh but i do, smoke?! challenge on!

Tigers pov

It's been a while after my dad died and we were chased by the twoleg now we're running to find shelter before the snow blocks out any caves or holes.our mom is trailing behind,old age has got her and I'm scarred she won't make it so me and my brothers are watching out for her. Claw has gotten better at attacking like today while running a badger came and claw attacked it by himself while we escaped. "I see a cave!" As I look where wolf is looking I see a cave where the snow can't go in "good eye" we turn to the cave and rest there " I'll go hunting and they will watch you" I need to get on my moms good side because she hasn't talked to me since my dads death "ok week watch her" claw meowed and my mom turned as I padded out but I really wanted to leave them and never come back so I'm gonna walk around and find a place to start walking. I caught a mouse and I looked everywhere so no one gets suspicious " you took a while" I laughed as wolf pretended to starve to death "she's asleep?" Wolf smiled "both of them" he smiled as I looked over mom and saw claw " who knew he ever slept!" I laughed and went to sleep. " two will have blood on their paws and one will live with thunder" who is that? I opened my eyes and saw a forest " tiger?" I looked to see my dad "dad!" He ran up to me "your bigger" he looked at me up and down "nice daughter you got here but um why are you in star clan son....."

(🐱 is it could it be!)

A note

Noooooooo not a note your probly thinking but yes a note 😒 tiger star actually sold death berries not fun berries an I have eaten some so I am making these books from starclan and because of that it takes a while for them to go to you so yea listen to the warrior cat news more ok back to the book

I miss smoke even though he's In my dreams it's not the same and he wasn't in my dream last night I'm still wondering why but then I smell something as I go out I see a flicker of yellow in the distance "fire!" I yowled and as every cat woke up I went in the nursery to get my mate and our kits some where safe and while the other cats are running were left behind with frostwind,dawn step, and river heart to help with the kits while blazeleaf left with the others "hurry we have to catch up" I tell through gritted teeth. We look everywhere but there is no trace of where they went in the river hurry! Right good idea smoke "follow me" they followed me as I led them through burning trees and grass, and I see the river "jump in" as we place the kits near the river bank I heard a loud crack "the kits will drown! And we can't swim!" I looked at dawnstep, "just stay at the edge" I gently paused the kit in the shallow water and saw a tree lean over "hurry move!" The tree fell as we moved over having water splash over us "we're gonna die! rain will come right'" Frostwind yowled and with that a crack of thunder sounded and it started pouring taking out most of the fire "hurry we have to find the others!" River heart yowled as we raced across thunder clan to find the others hurry! Tell frost wind to make it rain more! How do I do that " frostwind say to make it rain" my words were barley understandable through fur "I need more rain!" And more rain came and took out the rest of the fire "h-how..." we couldn't believe it well I couldn't. As we ran I saw the cats on riverclan so we ran faster Carrying the kits "stonefur,frostwind,dawnstep,river heart,my kits!" We ran across the border "your all safe" I purred as I set the kits down "we thought you died" sunstreak laughed "you guys are lucky your not hurt,the rain came from nowhere there wasn't clouds and suddenly it rained" we looked at each other and I smiled. " well we were lucky I guess. They won't know, I don't know what they'll do to frostwind.

Smokes pov

I turned around and saw my dad "dad! What do you mean?" He looked at me then my daughter "I mean no son of mine will ever be in starclan!" He hissed and tried to hit tigger but I went in the way and jumped on him "you will not hurt my daughter!" I clawed at my stomach as I tried to move but I couldn't. My daughter was slowly coming closer and jumped on him "and you don't hurt my dad!" And claw came and pinned him down "claw" he looked at me as I got up "finish him" I walked to him,and saw scaredness In them "I wish you weren't a good cat" he closed his eyes "just like firestar!" I could feel many eyes staring at me as I walked to him "I'm not good I just don't kill" I hissed in his ear and bit down on his throat. "Smoke" I looked over and saw the blue cat aging "come on let them wake up" I looked at my kits before they wake up "be safe please" and I walked away with i think it was bluestar.

Claw's pov

I looked at tigger and soon I woke up to poking at my side "I thought you were dead" wolf laughed "you would be mouse-brained to think I would die like that wolf" he looked at me and tiger who had some scratches on her "tiger looked like she almost did " wolf joked as he licked licked tigers wounds. "Yea you do tiger" she growled at me then tackled me "I'll teach you!"I batted her off and we played for a little,I hope we can keep the family like this forever.

The i dont know a name tittle

"Every cat old enough to catch their own Prey come for a clan meeting" stonefur and blazeleaf left and had the kits wait in the nursery " i know many fires have crossed this forest lighting them every green leaf so I bramblestar shall rename our clan to flameclan" small cheers erupted but some stayed silent "and I need to talk to stonefur for a second, meeting over" as the crowd left I went to bramblestar. "stonefur,you are aware I'm on my last life and as you see im close to losing it" I stared at bramblestar I'm sorry what were they talking about "what dose it mean" he looked at then outside "long a of starclan told me of a special cat who....." Dose e mean frostwind? Is he gonna exile him and replace me because I'm his father and exile all of us "stonefur I need you to keep that secret,ok" "I'm sorry about frostwind I'll make sure he doesn't do it again!" Bramblestar looked at me "frostwind, no I meant blazeleaf" her,she has powers? "I won't ask, well I'm sorry but blazeleaf was meant o be deputy not you,I'm sorry about this" I was shocked,he was gonna replace me! "But..how" I backed out and slowly padded to the nursery where my kits were "stonefur you should have seen burnkit he sneezed and fell over" blazeleaf laughed but I glared at her and walked to the warrior den and fell asleep.wake up! As I woke up I was in starclan "your awake" I stared at smoke "why am I here" he looked at me "your dead " he talked like a robot "I'm dead no how can I be" I stated panicking "don't mess with him like that smoke" bluestar purred as she walked out a bush "I just wanted to have fun you guys are boring" he complained "the kits are better than you even sunkit" I heard about the kit who died a day after being born by sickness "so why am I here" "because you have to forgive and forget mouse-brain" smoke cuffed my ear. "Go say sorry.

Sorry it took a while but today is my BIRTHDAY!🎉🎉🎂🎂

Mom is dead

[image]

Wolfs pov

It was my turn for hunting so why not.i already caught a mouse and a squirrel "wolf!" I heard my sisters yell,it sounded like she was crying so I ran to her "it's mom,s-she has green cough" claw was sitting next to her "go my kits or you'll get sick to" she was barley able to talk before coughing. "We have to go" tiger puts her head down and we walk out leaving her some food, "now what" claw looked ahead "we stick together" I cloud barley hear him from the birds around us. We padded straight like what my dad said in one of my dreams "I smell cats!" Claw hissed and a few cats came to us "your in shadowclan!" A black Tom hissed "your in my way!" Claw hissed back as the cat tried to hit him he doged and hit me "don't you dare!" I hit the other cat and tiger came in to help me distract he cats while claw killed the other one "watch him die" claw hissed as the cats turned to watch "shadow pool! " claw sliced his throat "leave well tell our leader"the cat hissed and left well then hopefully that won't happen again" I joked but claw glared at me.

Tigers pov

I can't believe claw killed a cat,it's like he was meant to kill,like those bloodclan cats. "Claw yo-you killed him" claw walked off as we heard some cats come "they're over here hurry" we ran off not talking the whole way. "Wolf you ok?" He looked at me then sighed "I'm sad mom died" a tear rolled down his cheek as he looked down,so as a sister I walked to him and poked his nose "boop" he looked at me while claw laughed at his confused expression "wh-why did yo-you d-do th-that!" Claw laughed so hard he cloud barley say the words from his mouth, wolf still had his confused face on as I giggled "because I know it would make us happy" wolf playfully cuffed my ear "wow tiger I feel mouse-brained now" we laughed while walking "see they're laughing of killing him!" We turned to see the cats we fought with other ones "nope I went boop" I yelled,the cats had a confused expression as we laughed at them "that was fun wolf said" well now I'm here to make them happy.

Gathering

"Stonefur,blazeleaf,frostwind,flowertail,cloudfoot and smokepelt you all will come to the gathering with me, you should be getting ready to the first gathering for flameclan" bramblestar got a mouse and went to his den,so I got a plump squirrel and shared it with blaze leaf "stonefur I'm sorry I took your spot as deputy I didn't know starclan told him " I looked at her and tried to see what's special about her "what powers do you have?" She looked startled and lowers her head "I-I don't h-have a po-power" she smiled and left In a crowd for the gathering blazeleaf nodded to bramblestar and we walked to the gathering.we were the second clan there so most of us started talking to one another. "Hey stonefur,why aren't you with the leader" I turned to see berrysnout smiling " blazeleaf replaced me" it's been a while since I've talked in a gathering,yea sure the deputies talk but they never liked me much. Berrysnout padded away to talk with riverpaw and grasspelt, I sat alone near the deputies Hoping someone will notice me and talk but no one did. "Clan settled down for the gathering" smallstar sat at the front of the trunk ready to begin. "Shadowclan had fresh prey and would like to announce two new warriors, nightpelt,and bramblefoot" the Warriors stood up straight but I could tell they were nervous "nightpelt,bramblefoot" we all cheered for the Warriors. Next was rabbit star from windclan, "wind clan has many prey this greenleaf and we are thankful" I could tell he she was hiding something because of her skinny frame but no one asked. Next was rapidstar from riverclan, "there has been good prey and I would like to name two apprentices , darkpaw and smokepaw" we cheered their names "darkpaw!smokepaw!" The gathering is really loud when we cheered names. And now thunderclan,"thunderclan is full with prey,and I have replaced stonefur with blazeleaf" many yowls of protest and agreement echoed through the clearing."settle down" smallstar hissed at all the cats below "and thunderclan is now flameclan" the cats stood there shocked for a while, and then started whispering "bramblestar can't you do that" the leaders looked at him "well I am leader so yes" the clan cats stood straight "then from now on shadowclan is now mistclan" more yowls from shadowclan were heard "and now on windclan is now grassclan" the cats yowled with the shadowclan cats but went silent to see what riverclan was gonna be named."I know you expect me to name riverclan something but I do not wish to gathering over" and with that the cats talked before leaving. "I can't believe most of the leaders changed their names!" Frostwind jumped next to me as blazestar went to me "I can't believe riverclan didn't" she replied. "I guess she liked the name"

Why do my hands hurt!!

A journey!

Tigers pov

Ok wolf and claw prepare to get scared. I looked at them from up in the tree in the second and third branch "claw,wolf" they didn't move a bit good they're sleeping I fluffed out my fur and arched my back "badger attack! Help me!" Claw and wolf jumped up and falling off the tree at the same time "tiger where's th-" I broke down laughing my tail off "yup fell -you fell off t-the tree!" Wolf licked his fur down while claw came to me "you scared us! We though you were really hurt!" I stopped laughing "bu- well I- you" he put a paw at my chest "no! You shouldn't have done that!" Claw dug a claw I'm my chest "how can you call your self a sister!" I yowled in pain as he dug deeper "I'm sorry I didn't meant to make you mad" I heard back tears as the pain got worse "why should I trust you now! I should ki-" wolf jumped on claw and pined him down "claw she's your sister!how could you! She....." His voice faded and everything went black as the pain stopped "tiger! Tiger!" I looked up and saw a cat run to me "w-who are you!" She stopped in front of me "I'm snowfur and your tiger right" she looked at the stripes on my back and to me "yes but where am I " she sat down "your I'm starclan. now come on I need you" I ran after her "where are we going" "you'll see" Is it good!

Wolfs pov

I tackled claw and pined him Down."claw she's your sister how could you! She said she was sorry!" Claws eyes soften and pushed me up "tiger im-" I looked at her "you killed her! I hit claw and he let me "I-I didn't meant to" he moved tiger a little "I-I did kill her!" He fell to the floor "tiger I'm so sorry! Come back please!" He kept nuzzling her "I'll go hunt I'll be back" I walked away and let him calm down "wolf! Where are you !" I looked to see a starry cat walking around "I smell you!" I froze "what do you want!" He smiled as he looked at me "ahh you look nothing like tiger I got the wrong one then,sorry" I was shocked he's a dead cat then! "No I'm her brother!" He turned "ahh I see and your other one?" "He's with tiger" he looked behind me "but tiger is gone no?" I tried not to cry "y-yes,what do you need" "I need you to follow me" he started running so I followed "what about claw?" He looked back "my brother is gonna get him" and he turned around are we all going in a journey? And with tiger!

Claws pov

I was devastated I killed tiger. Walked around and dug her a place to put her "I'll make a burial tiger just for you unlike mom and dad!" I looked around for wolf he was suppose to get food right? I kept digging until the hole was big and wide enough "there now let's get tiger" as I walked back I saw a shiny cat next to her "get away you flee pelt!" I hissed ready to attack. "You did this?" He pointed to a deep claw mark and a scratch bellow it "y-yes" I put my head down "I see she started her journey and your brother" I looked up to see him walking to me "who are you first of all and how do you know us?" "I'm crookedstar a long lost leader of riverclan, and your dad never stopped talking about you all" "your dead!" He nodded and went to tiger "put her up the tree and let's go" I got tiger and put her on the fifth branch so nothing can get her "where are we going?" "On your journey" he took off running "what about wolf!" "He's with my brother!" We kept running for a while are we all with dead cats!?

What's their jitney cause I don't know any ideas I'm literally out of them 😐 bye

Death sees death

I padded in the camp with the cats behind me and made my way to the warrior dens "how was it? Did they hate our new clan name?" I went to my best to sleep I don't wanna answer them. I woke up to a paw touching me so I looked up to see my kit "hey deathkit" "shhh!" I looked at him and he pointed outside "cats from not here are hiding in the corners,I came through a hole" I looked out and woke the other warriors "this better be important" "shhh" me and death kit hissed to the cats "wind-grassclan is invading" we woke up the rest of the warriors and used the tunnels to wake up the apprentice and bramblestar. "Thunderclan,attack!" We rushed out the dens and just in the startled grass clan cats. "How did they know!" "The kit knew!" I jumped on a cat and clawed him till he ran away and soon the fighting stopped to see a limp kit in the leaders jaws "deathkit!" I yowled,he dropped the kit regret in his eyes "I...i...killed him..." "You will pay!" I jumped on the leader and clawed his stomach until he got weak "look at the kit you killed, he was my kit!" I slashed his throat and he went limp "the cats gasped and grabbed the leader "he's dead that was his last life!" The grass clan cats picked up the leader and walked away. Only the kit of death can control death. I shook my head as I walked to my kit "deathkit?" I liked his fur and he soon started breathing "d-dad do we win?" I smiled at my kit he should have Been dead! I looked at his spine where it was broken but it somehow healed? "Let's get you cleaned" I walked with my kit to the forest to get him cleaned at the lake "he was dead!" I turned and looked at a grassclan cat "say that again and I'll kill you to!" The cat shrunk away and left. "Daddy was I dead?" I shook my head "no you were just in shock" we went to the lake and he played in it for a little "daddy!" I jumped in the water and went to him "what is it!" He looked at a few patrol cats "three have extra shadows "I don't see them" I dragged my kit out the water "tresspasser!" The cats raced to me "I'm in my border!" As they stopped they looked at me "sorry the water masked your sent, a battle ?" I looked at my scars and nodded "I see what cl-ahh" the ground the cats were sittin on crumbled and they fell but one cat who jumped in time "nooo" the cats flailed for a little then sunk below "the shadows left!" I looked at my kit "what shadows" "they had extra shadows but the shadows came and left " he looked at shadewind "he knew they were gonna die!" Shadewind looked at deathkit in horror "d-do I have one ?" My kit looked at him "no you only have one" he let out a sigh of relief and left "I'm telling night star"and he left. I walked back to camp and saw the cats continue their work. This was a long day to day. I rested my head on my paws and slept.

A prophecy

Tigers pov

I ran behind the cats going to a medium lake "what's the lake for?" After I finished she jumped in it. I tried to stop but fell in "help!" I fell in and saw a flash of white and swam up to see a bigger lake "we're are we?" She sat down and licked her fur "back here" she giggled and I loved around "rapidstar!
Quick this way! I see cats!" Soon a group of cats came from a hill from the pine trees "well hello rapidstar" the cats skidded to a halt infrint of us "starclan!" She laughed and nodded "your one of the cats who attacked us a few sunrises ago!" The cats fluffed up their fur as they saw me "we're waiting for some more cats so you can carry on " the cats looked at her in confusion and left "take care of your three life's rapidstar!"

Claws pov

I felt bad leaving tigers body but I had to follow the cat crookedstar. We kept running and saw a lake up ahead "hey it's more cats! And it's the same cat with the other one!" We came near a band of cats racing to us "crookedstar!" He nodded "I've came to see a few other cats but don't mind us" we kept bounding to the lake and saw tiger! "Tiger!" She looked up and smiled "your here!" "And your covers in stars!" She looked at herself as just barley noticing them "oh I see...." I looked for wolf but didn't see him "where's wolf?" We looked around for a little "probably late,usual for oak heart" me and tiger payed down talking about how she was in starclan and how I'm sorry.

Me and the cat came up to a lake and saw claw and tiger! I ran faster than the cat and ran to her "wolf!" Tiger and claw ran up to me, I looked at her star like pelt "stop starring I know I'm a pile of stars!" She walked away to the other star cats "what are we here for!" She starred at the cats as they watched us "because two will live with blood on their paws and one will live with thunder " they said it together like they practiced it, "th-their eyes!"claw looked a little scared,as I looked I noticed their eyes glowed white a little,"tiger?" I saw her eyes glowed a little as they chanted it "stop! Stop!" She yelled but they kept chanting it. "Stop it!" Claw flexed his claws and starred at the cats "tiger! Tiger what's wrong!" Her eyes were still glowing and she slowly disappeared "tiger!" She starred at the cats as she fully disappeared and the cats stopped "what did you do!" We starred at horror "we showed her something" and they disappeared "we're tiger!" We looked around and heard rustling in the bush behind us.

Who is it!

Saved the leader

"Death kit!"I woke up and rushed out of the den "what happened!" I looked to see my kit but saw a pile of rocks and his litter mates around it "he pushed bramblestar and soon rocks fell on him" I rushed to the pile and pushed the rocks away "dad!im in here help!" I got more rocks off with cats help "death kit are you ok?"blazeleaf picked up deathkit and licked the dirt off him "I'm fine!" "How did you know he was in trouble?" The cats and even the leader stared at him "he had a extra shadow like the other cats" he looked at me and so did the other cats. Let all cats old enough to catch their own prey come for a clan meeting!" The cats were already out so bramblestar continued "this kit has showed course and he has reached 6 moons,deathkit come here" deathkit walked up the rock staring at the leader with wide eyes "blackkit from now until your a warrior you will be known as black paw!" "Blackpaw!blackpaw!" "And now ravenkit,and leafkit come here" they half jumped half ran up there "you both will be called ravenpaw and leafpaw" "leafpaw! ravenpaw!" The three kits stood with pride but soon deathkits eyes widen with horror "stop !" I yowled the cats looked at me confused "stonefur you know better than to-" "shush! Deathkit what's wrong?" Tears soon came to his eyes "n-n-no,it's flowertail she has a s-shadow" everyone gasped and looked at flowertail,who looked horrified "shadowclan attack!" We turned and saw cars coming in "attack!" We charged at the cats and it turned to a flurry of cats "protect flowertail!" Deathkit jumped in front of her and battled the cats how his mom dose to cats "shadow clan retreat!" As the cats went I chased blacknight away "flowertail!" I turned and saw her laying limp and a trail of blood coming out her mouth next to rapidstar both limp,but soon he started breathing aging and looked around "what!" We surrounded him and got ready to pounce "stop!" We stood up and let bramblestar through "you will be our prisoner until the next gathering" we gasped "is keeping a leader as prisoner possible ?" Snow foot gasped "it is now"we led him to a empty cave near the back of the camp "stop!" Death paw ran to the top of the cave and jumped a little sending the cave crumbling down "our camp needs stronger rocks" he laughed a bit and led him to and blocked tunnel "in here" we put him in there and made sure there was no escape "death paw and stormfur keep watch tonight" "that's not fair he's barley a apprentice!" His siblings wanted to keep watch o could tell "sorry but I need him there" they scowled at him and left . Hopefully they will forgive him.

I found his kits!

Tigers pov

I woke up in a tree a little after what happened "hello!" I jumped off the tree and walked for a little "what are you doing here" I turned around to see a cat behind me "umm-well I -you see" he laughed "you are alone? What's your name?" I nodded "tiger, my dad named me after his brother but I'm a girl" the cat looked shocked at what I said "where's your dad?" "He died saving me" I looked down at my paws remembering him throwing me out of the monsters way to keep me alive. "I see,follow me,is your mom around?" Well do you see her! "No she died by a sickness,she said my dads brother was horrible for kicking us out his clan. And I blame him for my parents death" the cat stopped walking and looked at me "what would you do if you saw him?" "I'd call my brother claw because he's fights really tough,he even killed a cat!" He kept walking as I told him about my mom and dad and our journey here."where's your brothers?" "Somewhere over near the tree" I suddenly remembered I had to find them and I ran off "wait!" But I didn't I kept running,soon bumping into a worried claw. "Where were you!" He and wolf kept licking me happily "I'm fine ok,u was looking for you guys!" As it turned dark we laid down and watched the stars "which one is dad?" We looked through the sky
"That one" I pointed to a big star "because he was tough and always protected us" we tried naming all the stars but got to a few "we need to learn mor cats, all we have is dad,mom,snow fur-" "crookedstar-" "oak heart and blue star" we laughed as we all finished the names "let's sleep" we went in a tree and soon fell asleep.

Tigers pov (smokes brother)

I watched the cats go in a tree and sleep. "So they are his kits? I finally get to see them!" As I walked to them a mist soon came and I stopped "brother?" He bowed his head "I see you want my kits?" I nodded at him "well you can't" I was shocked "but brother they'll die out here!" "They haven't died yet and they chose weather or not they'll live with you" I looked at the kits and at my brother "b-but " "no! I say you won't take them!" I walked back to bloodclan and went to my bed "fine,I'll wait" "tiger are you ok?" I looked up to see my mate "yes tiny,got to bed" tiny used to be a clan cat named tinypelt but she was chased off by a clan mate.

(Comment down if you know which cat chased her out and what clan she was in)

"Daddy! I caught a mouse in the forest!" I licked smoke (named after my brother) "good job!" He played with his sister over who get the first bite of it. "They play to much" I smiled at her "it's a shame snakekit didn't make it" she lowered her head a little "it's ok his two legs are probably taking care of him and making sure he can no longer be blind" "you can't stop blindness" she led our kits in the back of the den and felt asleep. "I'll watch smoke's kits" and soon sleep took over me to

Great

As I woke I saw many cats mooning over how deathpaw can tell when someone will die. "Oh isn't it hard knowing you know when a cat is gonna die and can't do anything?" He nodded sighing "wow your good at acting!" I looked to see ravenpaw walking to deathpaw. "I'm not acting" the apprentices laughed "so your saying knowing when cats will die isn't a fake" he acted surprised "but you told us you were lying " leafpaw looked hurt "did you lie?" The others were just watching them "enough,don't team up against your brother" they looked at me and back away. "We were having fun" I glared at them and went to deathpaw "it ok I know your not lying" he leaned on me as the cat went to eat "why did starclan choose me to see death, I can't handle it" I watched the other cats and concentrated as I looked at them,as I looked over the cats I saw another shadow next to bramble star is that the extra shadow? "Well I see death to" deathpaw looked confused at me for a second and looked around the clearing "really who?" I concentrated hard again and saw the same one Naer bramble star "at bramblestar" he looked there and stared surprised "y-you can!" He stared at bramblestar for a little then sighed "he always has that extra shadow" I guessed because he was leader so it meant his last life. "Shadowclan attack!" Again! I ran to the entrance with other warriors behind me and met the cats in battle. "Give us our leader!" A cat swiped at me as I slipped landing blows on my face and stomach "get off him!" I looked up to see blazeleaf jump on the cat as my vision went black.

Deathpaws pov

I looked around and saw my dad laying there unconscious so I signaled for stormfur to get him and I charged at a orange she-cat who was attacking my mom "leave our clan you flea-pelt!" I scratched the cats leg and bit her tail which made her turn and run off. "Good job now let's get the others" I nodded and jumped on a brown Tom and clawed his sides "that's for my dad!" He tried to hit me but I ducked and clawed his stomach which made him yowl in pain. Soon the shadowclan cats started to leave and took rapidstar with them."well we had him for a day" I joked and went to see my dad in the Medicean cat den "he's still out deathpaw" I sighed and left the den "I was was gonna train you and your siblings but we'll do that tomorrow" I looked at fernpatch and smiled "thanks" I walked to my den and slept.

I know I know "why is this like the worst chapter jayfeather?" "Why was it late 'ninja?"
"Why are you jayfeather the ninja when u can't finish a chapter quick" "why are you making up questions?" Well because watt pad deleted the chapters to all my books so I had to re make them ok bye

Wolfs pov

I caught two voles for tiger and claw,I guess I won't eat tonight. As I went to our hide out I saw them eating a squirrel and a mouse! "Where did you guys get those from?" Tiger pointed to another cat near the bushes "I'm your dad's brother,tiger,and your wolf right " u stared at the cat and walked to my own place to eat "a trespasser! Your in our territory!" I looked up to see a graytom leader a group of other Cats here "I-I'm sorry I'll go" "no you have to see our leader first" I walked with them to a camp "what is this a clan, my dad told me about these" the Tom snorted next to me "what he say we kill and eat helpless kits and weak cats" I shook my head "no,do you do that! My dad said the clan cats would help each other because of a code and would never hurt each other except in battles" he shook his head a little "you have a good dad" I suddenly looked down as I walked "well had a dad,my dad name was smoke but he died saving my sister" the Tom stiffened as I mentioned my dad "who is this?" I stopped and looked at a cat with a little star on his head "I-I'm wolf" he looked at me "this cat was on our territory eating a vole" the leader got the vole and sniffed it "it's not from our territory" I slowly walked to my vole "I would like to stay here and help" the cats gasped except the leader "I like your courage,I need more cats like you" "but brambles-" he waved his tail and silenced the cat "you'll need you ceremony" I was happy to live in the clan but worried for my brother and sister.

Tigers pov (sister)

Me and claw looked everywhere for wolf but couldn't find him "he probably got mad and left us" claw latex on the tree and looked over the other trees "maybe he got hurt" I tried thinking of things to make sure claw doesn't give up "well he shouldn't have left" I laid down and looked at the moon. "I wanna join bloodclan" claw looked at me surprised "you can't even kill a mouse!" I tried not to let tears fall "I want to,I can't live in the wild like this,claw in not like you and maybe I won't have to kill,claw I don't know" he looked at me sad and put his head down "I don't wanna lose you to" "then come with me,we can keep each other" he shook his head "I wanna look around but I'll check up on you from time to time ok,now sleep" I nodded and fell asleep . I woke up to the beach shaking and looked down "claw where are you going?" He ran off in the bush and kept running "claw!" I ran to him but I lost him after I reached the lake "claw where are you!" I looked around but couldn't see him "over here I here someone!" I looked and saw wolf behind a other cat "wolf!" He skidded to a stop "tiger?" I ran to him "why are you with him? Why did you leave? Why-" "I joined a clan,he's my mentor,stonefur" I looked at him shocked "you left us for a clan! We looked all over for you to find out you left us your only family!claw just left!" He looked said but I couldn't let him go like that "I thought you cared for us I thought you actually loved us" "tiger wait you-" "no! I don't want to talk to you!"I left him and walked back to the tree and laid down. "Are you ok ?" I looked down and saw my dad's brother "yea just bored" he put a squirrel down and left. "Well I have someone left"

Ok soooo I'm almost done with this book and I'm asking you guys if I should make a new book or leave off there?let me know. Have a good day/night

"Quicker rainpaw,good job leafpaw" I watched them fight,but I can't do this "Deathpaw you'll work with wolfpaw" the new cat! No no no "I can't what if he knows to fight,he was a rouge!" Fernpatch glared at me and nudged me to him "I'll go easy " I glared at him and walked to the other end "the last to cross the line goes with leafpaw for a challenge" stormfur nudged fernpatch away "hey-" "ready set....GO!" He jumped over me and I slid under him graving his hind paw making him lose balance on top of me "Deathpaw are you ok?" I shook of the dirt and made myself look like I was gonna jump but went under him and taped his belly. "Good job Deathpaw" wolfpaw turned and Hit me on the side before I could doge a whisker away from the line,so I had a plan. He jumped to get me and I slid under him and pushed him so he went over the line "good job,you'll do a challenge with your sister for the first pick of the fresh kill pile" I got ready to battle and so did she "whoa! I said challenge, and the challenge is who ever can catch the most prey by sundown wins" we stared in shock "but I-" no buts go" I ran off leaving my sister complaining.i can use my powers for this. I looked over and saw a thrush looking for worms so I looked around it for an extra shadow target! I saw two shadows behind the bird so I jumped and caught it one down more to go! I buried my thrush and put rocks around it to remember and left.

Stonefurs pov

I laid In my den "is that really smokes sun?" I kept thinking about when he told me about his dad dying for his sister and how smoke said he got hit by a monsters saving his daughter and to prove it we met her,tiger, when I showed him the borders. "Hey you should've seen how your apprentice fought your son,but your son was too smart for him"I smiled knowing my son was able to beat a older cat "where is he?" The she-cat looked out the camp "he and his sister are trying to catch the most prey,he's good at knowing what he can and can't catch" I smiled "probably using his shadows for help" she laughed and walked to dawnstep and frostwind. "A rouge!theres a rouge! I jumped up and saw leafpaw with blazeleaf "stonefur,fernpatch,and stormfur, come with me and leafpaw" we nodded and ran in the forest,leafpaw led us to a small clearing where we could hear yowled and shrieks "stop!" I jumped over the bush and on the ginger she-cat "let me go!" I clawed her stomach which made her quiet "I won't hesitate to kill you,that was my son" I snarled in her ear,she looked scarred "I've never seen you or him I thought you were rouges" I clawed her again "be quiet mouse-brain!" She stood up and jumped on me "leave me!" I hit her and scratched her muzzle and she fell off "she's weak let's take her to the Medicean cat den" I help her walk to the cam. "The rouge that attacked deathpaw!" "I bet deathpaw saw his shadow when she did" she hissed at the cats "shush! Our leader is hunting Right now so you'll have to wait" I took her to the Medicean cat den and let jayfeather help her "I'm fine" "no your not!" I sighed and saw the leader come back "where's the rouge!" I showed him where "s-squirrelflight!" She looked up and smiled "bramblestar!" "I knew she smelled familiar" I looked at jayfeather who shrugged and helped squirrelflights wounds "I missed you!wheres our kits?" He frowned "you left us for many moons and you think we'll accept you like that!" She shrunk a little "sorrelstripe died by a fox and fernpatch is with his son,the apprentice you attacked,helping him" "i didn't mean to" he walked out "we thought you were dead!" He walked to the clearing greeted by his new mate littlestorm "I see" we left to our dens and went to sleep. Are all of us seeing old cats we've missed?

New record of the number of words I made which is 789 words yay

Lost forever

It took a while for some cats to get used to squirrelflight and others are mad she attacked a apprentice and don't trust her. "Stonefur,dawnstep,squirrelflight,and frostwind go on a border patrol" some cats groaned that they had to go with squirrel flight "may I go to?" Blazeleaf nodded to bramblestar "I'm sorry deathpaw but I have to go " deathpaw looked sad and like he was gonna cry but nodded "I see shall I saw something?" Bramblestar shook his head and walked with us "are you sure you want to do this?" He looked at me and nodded "I can't just be cuddled up and know another cat will die cause I didn't " I nodded and walked with the patrol "squirrelflight and stonefur will look over here" they nodded and walked off "look bramblestar when did you get a new mate?" "After you left I found a mate" she looked hurt "but I need to say we have a kit who sees death and he saw that I was gonna die so he warned me but-" "your saying your killing yourself!" He shook his head "if I don't-" he was cut of as I pushed him and got a blow to my muzzle "you mouse-brain!" I hit her back "he was gonna save you!" She looked at me and froze "I see you forgot the warrior code! I was gonna die but bramblestar is gonna save you! You were gonna die but he's here to save you!" She looked hurt "I'm sorr-" I walked off with bramblestar with the patrol who were frozen in shock "guys?" I looked and saw a badger swatting at something "it's battling a fox" I looked at frostwind at saw a red pelt run off "starclan help us!" The badger got ready to swipe at him but I jumped on the badger and tried to Cale it's back but was thrown off "squirrel flight!" I turned and saw brambleclaw run to squirrelflight but I got to her first and saw the badger loom over me "I'm sorry!" I closed my eyes as I yelled and heard a crunch as everything went quiet "mouse-brain!" I looked up at the voice and saw smoke there "you are one stubborn cat you know that" I slightly smiled as he joked. I felt tears go down my cheek "I missed you flea-pelt!" I ran to him "starclan has no fleas....right?" I laughed and pressed u muzzles against his sides "I guess I am mouse brained then" we talked about what happened the we missed and I still sad I won't see my kits and mate for a while.

Death paws pov

I heard rustling expecting to see bramblestar dead body but who they carried made me surprised "dad!" All the cats looked at me and saw my dad carried by the patrol. "What happened?" I growled as I looked at bramblestar "he-he saved me and died by a badger" I felt tears roll down my cheek as my mom and siblings sat down for vigil for tonight."I'm sorry death-" I hissed at my sister dawnstep "leave me alone!" She sat next to my mom and laid there. "Wake up they're gonna burry they gonna burry the body" I watched as the elders carried the body away,i walked to squirrelflight and scratched her and she looked at me in sunrise "I hate you! First you leave the clan leaving your mate Harry broken,then you attack me,and now you killed my dad! How do I know you didn't plan this!" The other cats started murmuring about her "yea how do we know,you attacksd a apprentice!" I looked and saw frostwind standing next to me "and you attacked me but I was able to escape and help!" Leafpaw walked next to me and more cats joined "if it's what you want I'll leave at sunhigh" bramblestar pushed his way through "no,we giver her a chance" I growled at bramblestar "your gonna trust a cat who attacksd your clanmates ?" He looked and sighed "just one chance "

Well I cried making this

I joined bloodclan

Tigers pov (female)

As tiger returned he looked around for me as I waited in the tree 1.....2.....3! I jumped on him making I'm yowl in surprise making some cats running over her and grabbing my scruff to pull me off him "just cause I'm small doesn't make you able to hold me like a kit!" The cat grunted and threw me like nothing and I almost hit the tree "oh no you don't!" I was blocked by a she cat and the black cat who threw me "great! I'm to small to fight you guys even for my age!" I dropped down to the floor "it's ok guys she's my brothers daughter" the cats looked at him for a little "you found your brother that's good!"I sighed and climbed at tree,I've always loved climbing trees.i can see tiger talking to them and sadness coming in their eyes "hey tiger want to join bloodclan?" I perked my ears and looked down "I don't think I've seen any cat climb like you,and your to young to defend your self!" I realized I claimed to the top of the tree "ok I'll join!" I quickly made my way down and walked with them. "their so many cats! I looked at the cats amazed "your climbing can help us find food,fight and alert us for danger" I smiled as I realized I can be a big help to the clan "I said I'll join!" He smiled and showed me some of the cats.

Claws pov

I stopped in a den for the night and looked at the sky "I'm sorry tiger,I'm sorry I left you but I couldn't stand knowing wolf was gone" I laid down and went to sleep. "You think he's dead?" "No mouse-brain he's breathing!" I felt a stick poke me "you want something?" I could feel the stock drop on my side as I turned a little "see he's awake!" I stretched and cleaned my pads "we just wanted to know why your on your territory" I looked at theses cats "where's your clan?" "Well it's us and my mate,but that's our den we were just getting my mate " I jumped on the cat "want to fight for it?" I smiled Evilly at the cat "n-no I'm ok" I got off the cat and walked off "dumb kitty pets" I walked in the two leg place and got jumped over the fence "what are you doing in my yard?" I looked to see a Tom starring at me "just passing " he lashed at me but I easily doges "bad mistake" I hit him to fast to doge and knocked his foot making him fall and landing a paw on his throat "I'm born to fight and kill"the cat looked at me scared and the two leg door flew open showing a big two leg coming to me as the she twolegs guarded her kits who were yowling I scratched the cat and ran off "you fought well cat" I turned and saw a she cat "I'm Marley,and you are..." "I'm claw" she laughed as I turned away "can I come with you? I don't live here" I sighed and let her tag along.

A prophocey

I never went near squirrleflight nor did most cats. "Death paw,come on its our ceremony" I looked at leafpaw and turned around "I'm not being a warrior without my dad" she sighed and dragged me out the den "you know your acting like how mom said dad acted when he was sad,kept to himself,starved himself,and stayed in the den" I sighed and got up "what ever" I walked to the base of the rock and waited for bramble star to call our names (I'm a skip it cause I don't know the words) "deathmind,leaffur,ravenflight!" I stood as they called my names "now you will have to sit vigil tonight" we walked to the camp entrance and sat in total quiet .dad are you seeing me right now?are you proud or mad I was given a bad name,I didn't see your shadow,or I shouldn't have said anything. I looked at the sky but saw nothing then everything went black,only death sees death,only frost can change weather,only the raven can fly,but the fox can speak many languages I looked around but saw black but then saw shadows of a fox calling over a badger and a raven sitting on the foxes back looking at me and showed a little fear but safety. "What's this!what are you saying?" Soon I opened my eyes and saw myself in jay feathers den. "Your awake I see" I looked at redpaw "yea what happened?" He shrugged and got some herbs ready "you fell and spammed out so your sister and brother called for helps along the clan" I tried to sit up but my head gutted "lay down,jay feather is gonna ask you questions with bramblestar" I looked down and laid down "how long will I be here?" "Don't know your looking better" turned and heard jay feather walking in "ok your awake come see me and bramblestar" I nodded and got up. "Did you see or hear anything when you collapsed?" I thought for a second "only death sees death,only frost can change weather,only the raven can fly,but the fox can speak many languages" they looked confused "that's all?" I nodded and they looked at each other "it could be something important" jayfeather nodded and shooed me away. "Your ok!" I saw blazeleaf and fern patch run to me "you scared the whole clan yesterday" I smiled "I'm sorry,I'm gonna take a walk I'll be back"they let me through and I walked to the lake "was that a prophecy?" I closed my eyes and saw a fox come out the bushes with the same raven on it. "I will help but I can only talk I can't hear cats" I looked at in scared and it turned to a tiny red kit with a white fox-like muzzle making to raven crow and fly turning into a winged black cat fly in the air and making me a shadow "you have to find us to save your clan " I opened my eyes and saw littlestorm coming over. "You need help?" She nodded and I helped her to the lake "I've been feeling sick and exhausted for a while" I looked at her "then go see jayfeather " she shook her head "I already did" I looked up where will I find you? We talked about the random eat things we thought of "I remember when you dropped the thrush on me as a kit and I freaked out thinking it was a fox" littlestorm nodded and laughed "I got tried not to laugh but attacked the thrush and caused a commotion waking the clan" I laughed "my mom was so mad at me,but I was happy I killed the 'fox' only to realized it was a thrush" we talked for a while. "I remember I was a handful with my mom" she laughed "I'm having bramblestars kits"

Tigers pov (female)
I padded in the camp surrounded by many cats "I told you he was ok!" I saw the two cats that attacked me look at me and tiger. "Tiger we saw a gray cat around the two leg place with a she cat!" I looked shocked claw? Do you know any of them?" The tabby shook his head "I only recognized Marley but the Tom was new,and he beat spots to!" Many gasps came from the crowd defiantly claw! "Where is he?" The cats all looked at me in surprise "we didn't bring him" he went off with a black she cat" I felt tear prick my eyes so I turned and ran to find claw. "Wait!" I ignored the voice and ran farther away soon getting lost. "Hello?" I looked around but saw no one "great I'm lost" I padded around looking for any signs of a cat. as I was I heard a distant barking grow louder and a cat flashed by with a dog on its tail "help!" I Chased after the dog remembering the moves claw and wolf showed me. "Leave the cat alone!" I hit the dog side and ran past it beside the cat "go running and I'll hold it off" the she-cat nodded and ran off while it turned and scratched the dog's muzzle and went out of range of its teeth. As I was fighting I saw the she-cat come back with another Tom and we both attacked the dog dogging and attacking. As we attacked the dog bit me as I tried to get away and shook me "help!" The Tom jumped on the dog making it let go and run off "thank yo- claw!" He looked at me surprised "tiger your ok!" I miked away and he tried to lick me "no! I can't believe you just left me on the spot for another she-cat, for star clan sake I'm your sister!" I saw guilt show in his eyes as he looked at me "I didn't mean to I-I was...." "No I see you care more about a cat than me!" I looked at the she-cat who looked at me surprised "I suppose your Marley?" She nodded "so you two are who the whole clan is talking about!" I growled under my breath and left claw and Marley.

Claws pov
I saw tiger stop infringement of two cats and talk "stay here" Marley nodded and I went to see who share was talking to "we were looking for you! Are you ok?" Tiger nodded "oh and to tell you guys the cat Marley was with is my brother" they looked at her "he left me for another she cat" no tiger I didn't! "Well tiger is gonna send a patrol to kill I'm to protect the clan" tiger shook her head "we don't need that,let's go" they were walking but one stopped and looked at me "you mouse-brained fool!" He spat at me and walked off with the others,so I walked back to Marley "I'm sorry,I didn't know she...." I nodded "let's keep going" "where are we going?" I shrugged but she still followed me. We ended up at a thunder path with a lot of monsters "when I say go.....go!" We bounded over to the other side safely. We found our selfs in another two leg place so we met new cats and helped them with trouble or lost cats. "Thank you for finding my kit" Marley purred and I nodded "just helping"

Wolfs pov
I felt bad for deathmind because he's taking his dad's death very badly. I finally got my warrior name wolf heart .
"Wolfheart,deathmind,ravenflight,leaffur,storm fur,squirrleflight,fernpatch, your coming to the gathering I'll get the others " I padded to squirrelflight "I don't think you killed stone fur" she purred and smiled "your the only one" we made it to the gathering "river clan has made one new apprentice,sharppaw!" "Sharppaw sharppaw!" The cats around me started cheering so I did to. "We have had two new members in thunderclan, wolfheart" "wolfheart wolfheart!" The leader waited until they quieted to begin "and squirrleflight" the cats stayed quiet and squirrelflight put her head down "I have news" all the cats looked at the wind clan leader "thunderclan has been stealing prey!" "And they attacked and kept our leader prisoned!" Many gasps came from the crowed "no we didn't and shadow clan attacked first!" The shadowclan leader jumped on bramblestar slashing his throat. "The moon is covered!" A tabby Tom screeched every one looked up and panicked "he has killed a leader!" Death paw slashed at the other leaders throat making him instantly die "two leaders at once!" A black she-cat yowled all the cats panicked while the two leaders and deputies tried to calm them down "wolfheart come here!" I walked to blazeleaf who had frost wind look at the clouds "I need you to tell the cats to look at the moon when frostwind moves the clouds" I was confused but I nodded "look at the clouds!" The panicking stopped as every at turned to the moon and saw the clouds move away "ravenflight,go up in the sky and make yourself look like a strclan cat" ravenflight nodded and flew up "stop!" He likes down "I know two leaders have died but if this continues all of you will die!" Many cats gasped but frogtail stepped up "how do we know your not lying?" Blaze leaf looked at death kit and he nodded "frogtail you -you have a extra shadow!" Many cats gasped and frogtail backed down "now leave and make your new leaders and come back next moon" me and blazeleaf looked shocked to see bramblestar come "y-you came!" He nodded leave now!" The cats nodded and one by one they left "you guys planed this?" I looked at the cats "yes but bramble star wasn't in the plan,we planed it while the cats panicked" I nodded to deathkit "I see..." "But our powers were not meant for this we still have to train foxkit to learn his powers" I sighed "you can keep your secret I'll forget about this" "stop! Your needed,I was given another prophecy about a wolf who will defend the clan as enemies come" I looked at bramblestar and he nodded this is gonna be long.

"Mamma can I play with maplekit and sunnykit?" I smelled sadness on her and herd her laugh "sure foxkit go play,I'm gonna talk to jayfeather" I sniffed my way to my sisters and jumped on maplekit "hey get off flea-pelt!" She threw me off and pinned me down "I win!" I threw her off and gently bit her neck "no I do" we laughed and sunnykit threw wet moss at me. "Now you wet as a river clan cat!" She chased me and I ran into a tom "hey watch where your going,kit!" I shrunk back and smelled my mom "leave him alone!" "He should have seen me!" I felt my moms sadness and shock "talk to him and I'll shred you" she growled and picked me up i should have seen him? My mom put me down and I smelled a cat with plants mixed in with his pelt "ok I need you to find a small ragged leaf from my herb pile" I nodded and sniffed through the leafs and found a ragged leaf "here" he sighed and a cat acne behind me "yep he is " "no he can't be!" "I agree with redmoon" my sister put her tail on me "let's go " I followed her "what do you see?" I smelled the surprise off her as she answered "well...u see cats and a camp with many dens" I sighed "all i see is black" she licked my fur which made me soon sleep. "He lost his dad and is blind!"

Maplekit's pov

I sighed as he fell asleep and walked to sunnykit "I feel bad for him" she nodded "he lost his dad and he's blind!"
"We lost our dad and he's blind" I corrected her. She sighed and look at foxkit "let's talk to deathmind!" I don't like talking to him because he can see when cats will die but I know my sister loves him so I nodded and we looked for him."he's not in camp" I locked her head "he's probably on patrol" she sighed and looked around "I'll never love someone" she perked her ears and turned to me "yes you will" "no way" she tackled me and we wrestled around the camp and chased each other out of camp into the forest "come back!" She stopped but I kept running soon getting lost in the territory. I heard paws and saw sunnykit with foxkit "he woke up and followed me"she breathed, we heard growling and turned to see a fox-well me and sunnykit- "star clan help us" the fox stalked closer to us and I saw Foxkit's face turn from confusion to scared."foxkit run!" He opened his mouth but out came bark and the fox froze and barked at him confused "what was that?" "I don't know" foxkit barked again but grocer and the fox ran off in the trees "wow I scared the fox away!" A patrol with deathmind came and looked at us "we heard a fox!" "Foxkit scared it away!" The patrol looked shocked but deathmind looked like he expected this "let's go all of you" we led foxkit back in camp "we found them!" The clan turned and our mom rushed to us "my kits never go out again!" "I need to talks with foxkit" I felt bad for him he's gonna get the blame! "It wasn't him it was me!" Deathmind looked at me but got foxkit and signaled for frostwind and sparrowflight to come to. "Never go out of camp any more!" I sighed "foxkit scared a fox away!" She growled "and stop your kit tales!" "But mom we-" out mom hit her cheek with claws seath and sunny kit stopped and looked like she wanted to cry "I wish dad was here he would have been better and beloved us!" Our mom looked shocked but sunnykit ran off and my mom looked at me but I stalked off also leaving her to grieve for her mate. "Did you know our dad had squirrleflight as a mate to!" She rolled her eyes and sat in bed covering her face "I don't care"

Sunnykit's pov

I felt the stinging on my cheek where my mom had hit me with her claws but quickly hid them so no one could see. I looked out side and at the leaders den is foxkit in trouble?or are they gonna abandon him and saying good bye!
I bolted up and ran to the leaders den where they were gone "no no no" I ran out side and clouded with my mom "you sorry excuse for a kit,move!" She hit my back and I felt the stinging pain again and ran past her letting the hot tear fall this time she dosent love me,she Doesn't love us! Dad loves us!
I ran and saw foxkit with the others "don't abandon him!" They turned to me surprised "we weren't don't worry...where did you get cut?" I remembered my mom and told them "I see...ok well since your out here come tag along I guess" I jumped with joy and walked with them "where are we going?" Foxkit shrugged and soon stopped "there's a thrush talk to it" fox kit stepped forward and made a weird cawing sound and the thrush looked at him and talked back "keep going" the thrush hoped to him and I jumped on it kill ing it with a bite to the neck "I caught it!" Foxkit smiled and nodded "I smell the blood" I stumbled on the thrush so blazestar helped me and walked into camp. My mom grabbed me "where have you been!" She nips at my foots way from the clan "walking with foxkit and the leader" she growled "you two will never be as good as the leader,you are a burden to the clan!" Se swiped at my cheek with full claws this time making a deeper cut "no wonder dad died,he wanted to leave you!"I clawed at her and took off next to blazestar she was my mom to us . She licked my cuts and sent me to bed so I helped foxkit into our nest where maple kit laid. "Wake up" look up "I smell blood" I heard him whisper we went to maplekit and sh-she was badly hurt "hel-" a tail blocked my mouth as my mom walked to us with her claws out "go!" I yowled and foxkit ran with me and rolled into anther cat "Foxkit's in the prophocey,protect him" He said and stalked in the nursery while the clan woke and rushed to us. He's in a prophecy?

I laid in my nest waiting to sleep but I,just felt like something was gonna happen. "Why are you awake?" My eyes grew wide as mom leaned over me "I'm s-sorry" she shook her head and clawed my belly and the pain was to much as she kept doing it, every thing went black. "The poor kit she should be returned!" I looked up and saw two cats talking to each other next to me "she has the name of maple shade In her,she has a different destiny than her siblings,firestar" the tom growled "she can be good we'll guide her,please tallstar" the black and white tom sighed and walked to me "where am?"he touched my nose and I saw a flash before I woke in another den but I saw my self? "Maplekit wake up!" I see my sister being held by foxkit "we stopes mommy so she can't hurt you!" The big Medicean cat shooed them say and covered me with leaves and petals "are you ready to go back with a destroy that can destroy or help your clan?"I jumped three tail Kwangju high and I saw the fire-like Tom come to me,and nodded "just know if you choose the wrong one you will fight your kin in battle but you can also choose a good one and help them beat a darkness that awaits them" I thought about it *I'm gonna help them! "*I'll help them!" He laughed and soon I woke and jayfeather gasped "your alive?" I nodded and felt a stoning pain on my stomach "don't move I'll get blazeleaf" I heard many cats talk outside "may all cats old enough to catch their own pesetas come for a clan meeting" I saw many cats flood out of dens and sat at the bottom of the rock wow so many cats! I stared at them in surprise of how many cats there was. "Our Medicean cat has discovered starclan have given us back,maplekit!" Many cheers and yield of joy erupted from the crowd I wonder if they know me? Reedmoon came and helped me get up "they want to see you" I stared astonished "they,see me?" He nodded and I walked with him to the rock next to the leader "make them happy to have you" I looked for the flame colored Tom but couldn't find him. "and I think they They have reached six moons" I looked at my sister and brother and they looked happy to be apprentices. "Maplekit until your revive your warrior name you shall be know as maplepaw, grayfur,you have mentored flamecatcher before and I want you to pass down what you know to maplekit" him!not him. "Foxkit from now until your a warrior you'll be known as foxpaw,deathmind, he will be your fist apprentice.." Is it because their both in a prophecy? Well guess what,I have a prophecy I don't have to share. I lost my thoughts to chanting "maplepaw,foxpaw,sunnypaw!" I held my head high and let the chanting stop. "Let's go!" I woke to see grayfur coming to me "ok-" "hurry you mouse-brain!" I got up and followed him to battle training "I'll start with u since the others are sleeping" I looked at the sky and still saw silver pelt "what ti-" claws raked my side and he darted past "don't get distracted!" I got ready and slid under him gently grazing his stomach "what is this! We're fighting cats not grass,use your claws!" I unseath my claws at jumped on him and he rolled over squishing me. "I'm gonna be happy to work with you all!" I looked and saw sunnypaw and foxpaw,who stopped with their mentors and looked at me "are you ok ?" They ran to me and licked my wounds "she fine go fight with your mentors!"grayfur hissed and they slowly backed off "grayfur be nicer she barley an apprentice" I looked at deathmind and leaffur worried and deathmind shook his head "she has a bad future if you keep doing this " "why don't you be a Medicean cat if you know about every cat!" They looked taken back at him comment and left me with him "let's start" I got ready and jumped on him and and got a few lands and jumped away "good using instinct,see your getting better" I smiled and we practiced and I got yelled at but soon the sun was going down so we stopped "ok I'll go to camp and I'll bring you prey if you can find a better way to camp,if you can't no prey" my heart dropped I can't do that! But he was gone. I walked around the forest and headed towards whee grayfur was going and found the camp "maplepaw!" I saw a few warriors head to me while some blocked my siblings from coming to us "your mother has come to jayfeather and told us you have killed her while the clan was a sleep! And grayfur says that you have attacked him and ran off!" I looked the cats shocked "no I didn't" they led me to the leaders den and guarded it "she shouldn't,we know" "get back!" I looked for my brother and sister and the guards kept them hidden."maplepaw come here" I slowly came to the leader "be seen how your mom has treated you but-" I it her off befor she finished "you believe them!

You acted like a mother to us when our real mom was curls and you believe I would do something like that!" I backed away and ran out of her den with a few warriors following "come back here you traitor!" "Shush she didn't !" "Kill her!" I ran out of the forest and jumped in the lake escaping them.

Deathmind pov

We watched as she jumped in and didn't come up "she didn't hurt her mother mouse brains!" They looked at me "her mom hurt them" the looked at me confused "her and grayfur planed this but no you had believe everything a dead cat,even from the darkforest says!" They looked shoked and ashamed and we walked back to camp. "Where is she?" I looked at blazeleaf and fell on her "those mouse-brains think a darkforest cat say thing that are true" I calmed down a little "s-she jumped in the lake" many gasped and yield erupted and her siblings looked shocked of what happened "I'm sorry" "I need a patrol to come with me,foxpaw,sunnypaw,deathmind,fernpatch,and grayfur" I led the patrol to where she went and the lake was still,deathly still. "I don't see her and her sent is from when you chased her" we called for her and looked but couldn't find anything "let's go " blazeleaf lead the patrol the the edge of the teritory "grayfur you should leave" he looked surprised by then smiled "ahh so u knew it was a lie about what we said" he crossed the border and left without looking back. "We lost two in a day..." We walked home with a camp full of waiting cats "is she there..." They looked but could tell we couldn't find her "she's coming back I know it"
